Sir:

A notice of abandonment in the present application, 09/915,995, was received on September 21, 2005. Applicants respectfully assert that the present application is not in fact abandoned and respectfully petition, under 37 CFR 1.181(a), for the withdrawal of holding of abandonment.

Applicants received a Notice of Allowance in the present application on April 27, 2005. Applicants noted that the Notice of Allowance only allowed claims 1-28 of the 59 claims pending in the present application. On June 6, 2005, Applicants contacted

09/915,995

DOCKET NUMBER AUS920010397US1

Examiner Meky, the primary examiner issuing the notice of allowance, and pointed out the insufficiency of the notice of allowance in failing to dispose of claims 29-59. Applicants requested that Examiner Meky withdraw the entire case from allowance and examine claims 1-59. Examiner Meky issued an interview summary on June 8, 2005 stating that an agreement with respect to claims 29-59 had been reached and stating the substance of the interview as follows: "The applicant informed the examiner that there are more claims (29-59) to be considered. The examiner informed the applicant that the examiner overlooked these claims and he assumed that there are only claims 1-28 pending in the application. The examiner will open the application and he will examine all the pending claims 1-59." A copy of the interview summary, providing a complete record of the interview, is attached as Exhibit A.

Applicants received the Notice of Abandonment on September 21, 2005, issued on the grounds of "Applicant's failure to timely pay the required issue fee and publication fee, if applicable, within the statutory period of three months from the mailing date of the Notice of Allowance." Applicants spoke with Examiner Meky on September 30, 2005 and Examiner Meky stated that someone else had issued the Notice of Abandonment without his knowledge, that the agreement to reopen prosecution of all pending claims was still valid, and requested that Applicants file the petition to withdraw the holding of abandonment. Applicants also contacted SPE Etienne on October 19, 2005 and SPE Etienne confirmed that Examiner Meky had not properly filed a request to remove the application from allowance and reopen examination, that the present application was not in fact abandoned, and requested that Applicants file the petition to withdraw the holding of abandonment.

Therefore, in view of the history of prosecution in the present application, Examiner Meky's agreement to reopen examination of all pending claims, due to the error in the notice of allowance, withdraws the application from allowance and removes the requirement of Applicants to pay a timely issue fee. Therefore, the present application is not in fact abandoned for failure to file an issue fee because no issue fee was due in view of the reopening of examination of all pending claims. Applicants
